Marketplace

Explore the best of Napa Valley in an expansive, sparkling setting overlooking Napa River at Napa Riverwalk Marketplace on Saturday and Sunday, March 13 and 14, 11 am to 5 pm. Taste sensational cuisine, world famous wines, hearty craft brews, an array of gourmet products and mustards from around the world at the rain or shine Signature Event for connoisseurs.

Highlights include cooking demonstrations sponsored by Viking and Standards of Excellence; two jazz lounges; a main stage at The Veterans Memorial Park amphitheater featuring Pride and Joy on Saturday and The Tommy Castor Band on Sunday; a Sunset Magazine pavilion; live remote broadcasts of KGO Newstalk AM810's Dining Around with Gene Burns, and Martha Stewart Living Radio.

If the sun is shining, you're in for a brilliant experience; if it rains, one of the coziest weekends of the year beneath festive white tents.

Napa Riverwalk Marketplace has been designed to complement Napa's beautiful new River Walk, with Riverfront and Historic Napa Mill as anchor sponsors. Park in downtown Napa and walk to the event. Walk from the Main Street Paviliun at the north end of the event to the main stage, the Riverfront Promenade and Historic Napa Mill Pavilion along the river walk. A shuttle will also be available. Convenient entrances will be placed in a variety of locations. Tickets will be available at the door; in advance at Raleys, Nob Hill Foods and Bel Aire Markets; at local ticket outlets; and, online at mustardfestival.org.
